

Bureau of Indian
Office of Indian Education Programs
Special Education

What You Can Do To Improve Special Education

- Become Familiar with special education
- Reinforce the importance of special programs, services and policies with administration and staff
- Encourage parent participation
- Support full funding of special education programs
- Become familiar with parents and students due process rights and procedures
- Observe special education “in action”
- Talk with general and special educators
- Visit with special education support staff
- Visit with students and parents
- Visit schools and take part in activities